AGED GROOM.

His Wedding Announced For Next Sunday.

Wealthy Mt. Vernon Man Will Marry an Akron Lady.

On Sunday next E. E. Cunningham, aged 72, will lead to the altar Mrs. Anna Grimm, aged 39. The groom-elect is of Mt. Vernon; the bride-to-be of Akron.

The ceremony will be performed by Rev. J. W. King at the residence of James E. Wert, East Akron. Only a few friends will be present at the ceremony. The newly-married couple will go at once to Mt. Vernon and begin housekeeping.

Mr. Cunningham is a wealthy and highly esteemed citizen of Mt. Vernon, where he has spent the greater part of his life, and is engaged in the building and loan business. Until the past few days Mrs. Grimm resided at the residence of W. H. Rothrock, 134 Coburn st. She was at the Rothrock residence a year, and was engaged in making brooms, having a shop on East Exchange st.

Mrs. Grimm came from Mt. Vernon to Akron. Her childhood days and nearly all her life was spent at Mt. Vernon. She has been in Akron a comparatively short time.

Cunningham and Mrs. Grimm have not been intimately acquainted very long. They met at Mt. Vernon a short time ago, since which time Cunningham's visits to Akron have been frequent.

WHAT

Changed Editor Holden's Mind?—That $500,000 Mortgage?

The Cleveland Recorder says today, editorially:

"In the Democratic National convention of 1896, which nominated William Jennings Bryan for the Presidency, Liberty E. Holden was a delegate at large from Ohio. "Liberty voted persistently and consistently on his own judgment and for himself and not in any obedience to unit rule, for John R. McLean for the nomination for president.

"If McLean was good enough for president in 1896, is he not good enough to run for governor in 1899?"

"Mr. Holden was certain that McLean was the man for president in 1896. Why has he changed his mind? What makes him so vindictively opposed to McLean this year?"

"Certainly it does not mean that McLean has done anything to merit being turned down. McLean has not changed. Holden has. What has done it? The public can figure that out. There have been few alliances and new mortgages made since that time."

CONVENTION

Of Woman's Political Equality Club.

Delegates From All Sections of State Will be in Akron.

The State convention of the Woman's Political Equality club will be held at Akron October 2 and 3.

No members of the club live in Akron. A woman's suffrage society used to be conducted here, but it was discontinued a good while ago. The object of holding the convention here was that a little more enthusiasm in the cause might be infused into Northern Ohio.

Mrs. O. L. Sadler of 231 Carroll st. received a letter several days ago from a member of the Warren club, asking her to secure a place for holding the convention. Through Mrs. Sadler's influence the Universalist church has been secured.

BOUND OVER.

Probate Court Will Investigate Raasch's Sanity—Police Court.

In police court Friday morning, Max Hollob, a junk dealer, whom it is alleged received stolen goods from Levi Wilson, charged with stealing brass from the Loomis Salt company, was bound over to Probate court in the sum of $500.

Albert Raasch, charged with stealing a horse from John Ritzman, was turned over to Probate court to have his sanity investigated. Michael Kloor, charged with intoxication and stealing a ride on a train, will be given a hearing Saturday morning.

BIG CONTRACT

To Provide Electrical Machinery For Northern Ohio Traction Co.

The contract for furnishing the new electrical machinery for the Northern Ohio Traction company's power house has not yet been awarded, although the directors of the road have had the matter under consideration for some time. When it is considered that the contract will involve $100,000, it is not to be wondered at that the company is going slow in the matter.

Born in Akron.

John Wesley Green, appointed today as captain of the Fortieth volunteers, is a native of Ohio and was born in Akron, says a Washington special. He has served five years in the regular army and was first lieutenant of Co. G, Roosevelt's rough riders. Lately he has been city marshal of Gallup, N. M.

FELL INTO DITCH.

Bradford Brings Action to Recover From Company.

A case that will occupy nearly all day in Justice Hard's court is that in which W. H. Bradford of this city sues the East Ohio Gas company $300 damages for injuries sustained by a fall in an open ditch on North Howard st. The case is being tried by jury and has been in session since morning.
